THE TEN COMMANDMENTS (+1)

1. Rds 1-4: RB/WR only. Allen/Lamar iff a Rd-3+ steal — VBD fair price: Allen pk 17-24, Lamar pk 26-30.
2. 6 of 8 make playoffs — draft ceilings, win December. Regular-season safety is overrated.
3. 2 FLEX + full PPR: hammer WR depth in Rds 4-8. You start 4-5 pass-catchers weekly.
4. VBD RULE: Rds 3-5, same-tier tie -> take the RB. The wire always has 10-ppg WRs on it. It never has a 13-ppg RB.
5. One QB, Rds 6-9. Tier-3 QBs are free — the QB8 beats a waiver QB by 15 points a SEASON. No QB2 before Rd 14.
6. TE: McBride/Bowers Rd 2 is a conviction play (fair price, not a discount — see the guide). Otherwise wait or punt late.
7. K + DEF in Rds 15-16. NO exceptions. VORP of a kicker rounds to zero.
8. Bench = 6 lottery tickets; the wire is your depth in an 8-teamer. No boring vets.
9. 2 IR slots = free real estate — stash falling stars (Kittle, Dell types).
10. MIAMI RULE: no Dolphins pass-catchers. Achane only at a heavy discount.
11. Wk-11 trade deadline, pick-trading ON. Hunter will attempt something. Send screenshots.

ROUND MAP

- 1-2 Elite RB/WR core (or elite TE)
- 3-5 WR hammer + RB value — same-tier tie goes RB. Nabers / Waddle / Egbuka zone.
- 6-8 QB + TE + best flex bodies. Burden / Tuten zone.
- 9-12 Upside swings only: rookie RBs, breakout WRs.
- 13-14 Handcuffs & IR stashes (K. Herbert SF).
- 15-16 DEF, then K — best offense left standing.

READING THE VBD OVERLAY

VORP (the gray number) = points per season over the best free agent at the position. Waiver baselines: QB12 · RB41 · WR47 · TE12. It says what a player is WORTH — not where to pick him.

▲ +n = VBD ranks him n spots ABOVE our board. A discount — buy with confidence. (Mostly the Rd 3-6 RBs.)

▼ -n = VBD ranks him n spots BELOW our board. Paying over sticker — legal, but do it on purpose.

Flags only appear at 8+ spots = a full round of disagreement in an 8-teamer. Smaller gaps are noise — no flag, don't sweat them.

Worked example — Brock Bowers: VORP 77 (a TE2 season beats a waiver TE by ~77 pts), board pk 17 vs VBD pk 43 -> the ▼-26 flag. Still a fine Rd-2 conviction pick IF you believe he's the TE1 this year (then he's a ~135 like McBride). VBD prices the slot; your board prices the player.

FAIR-PRICE ANCHORS (VBD)

- Josh Allen ~ pk 17-24 · Lamar ~ pk 26-30 (steal = past that, not a 6-spot slide)
- McBride ~ pk 16 (fair in Rd 2) · Bowers ~ pk 43 on slot math
- QB8 = +15 pts/season vs the wire. A QB2 before Rd 14 is a burned pick.
- K / DEF ~ 0 over streaming. Rds 15-16, period.

DEF (Rd 15-16)

1 Texans 2 Broncos 3 Seahawks 4 Rams 5 Eagles 6 Jaguars

K (Rd 16)

Best offense still standing — DAL / LAC / HOU / BAL / CHI. I'll call the name live.

LATE TARGETS (Rd 10+)

- K. Herbert RB SF (the cuff) · J. Higgins WR HOU
- J. McMillan WR TB · R. Shaheed WR SEA
- K. Gainwell RB TB · J. Brooks RB CAR
- I. Likely TE NYG · D. Kincaid TE BUF
- J. Blue RB DAL · M. Lloyd RB GB
- A. Mitchell WR NYJ · T. Shough QB NO

THE RECEIPTS (Thunderdome, Aug 5)

300 sim rooms x 16 seasons: pure VBD edged our doctrine 53.8% (+33 pts/yr = one waiver pickup). Pillars hold; Rds 3-5 RB tie-breaker adopted. Both bots took their QB in Rd 6. The QB-reacher CPU finished 4.69 of 8 — looking at you, Hunter.
